

GUIDE 2 Directions: Answer the following questions on notebook paper citing which website gave you the answer. Then complete the back side. Once you have finished, decide if you will follow the Greaser or Soc path in your iAdventure.

Gang Life:

1. What divided the families of the young Romeo and Juliet to cause such hatred?
2. What caused the Hatfield and McCoy families to have such a long lasting feud?
3. How is bias perpetuated (continued)?
4. How can hidden bias be changed?
5. How are people, especially teens, stereotyped?
6. How do teens fall victim to stereotype?
7. Do teens really want to fight out differences? Explain.
8. How do gangs effect everyone?

Social Stratification:

1. What are dividing factors in social separation (classes)?
2. The youngster in the train photo is not much older than you. What does the photo invoke in yourself?
3. When The Outsiders was written, many of the Socs wee members of an elite society whose parents owned oil fields. Read the article and decide if the Socs of today would be much different than those of the 1960's. Do they really sound like such bad people?
4. What can you learn from the picture of Rima?
5. What is stratification, and how are people divided socially?

Why would teens be attracted to be part of a gang like the Greasers?

Greaser:

How has society separated the Greasers?

Why would teens be attracted to be part of a gang like the Socs?

Soc:

How has society separated the Socs?

Which group will you follow for your iAdventure?