

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____

Directions: Find the necessary information for each piece of the newspaper. Then use your data collected through the iAdventure to write your article about Bob Sheldon’s death.

Newspaper Vocabulary

Active voice

Byline

Caption

Column

Credit line

Dateline

Direct quotation

Headline

Indirect quotation

Inverted pyramid

Justified

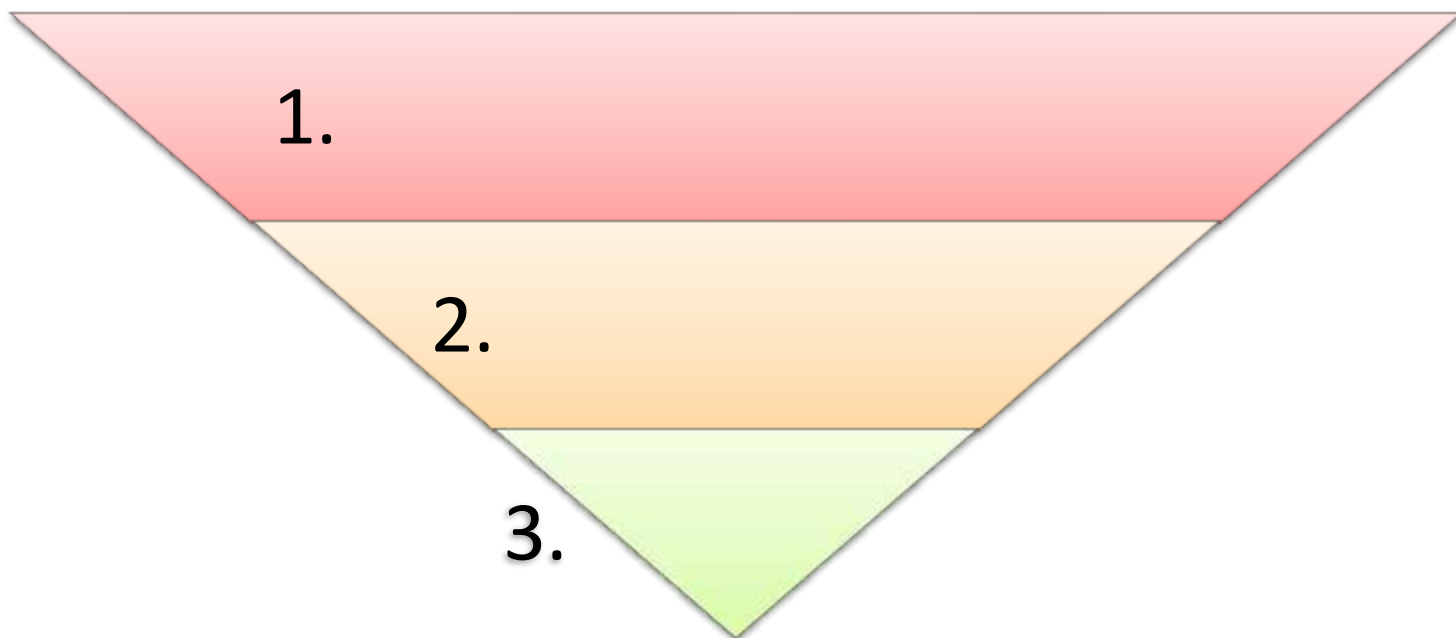

Lead

Obit

Paraphrase
Passive voice
Slander
Source

What are the different kinds of articles and their basic definitions?
1.
2.
3.
What kind of article will you write?

What are the parts of the Inverted Pyramid?

What pieces should be included in a summary?

Is a summary the same thing as a lead? Explain.

What is the Newspaper Article Formula

What is Feature News?

What are the ABC's of Journalism?

The Language of Newswriting is actually advice for journalists. What pointers are you offered?

What is a hackneyed expression? What should a journalist do instead?

What are the advantages of the Inverted Pyramid?

Look at the different leads. Which will work best for the kind of article you're going to write?

What is a bridge and where does it belong?

What should be included in the body?

What is the final piece of advice for an effective article?

Practice title writing by writing three different titles for your article.

1.

2.

3.

Practice: Write the quote sentence or phrase necessary to identify the term.

Active voice

Byline

Caption

Column

Credit line

Dateline

Direct quotation

Headline

Indirect quotation

Lead

Paraphrase

Source

Use the inverted pyramid to plan out your own article.

